

Sunday Family Walks Along the Chinook Parkway

Sundays: August 15th to September 12th, 4-5pm
Let's meet at Riverside Park Parking Lot

Sunday afternoons are best spent doing fun activities with the whole family.

Here is your chance to enjoy an afternoon walk along the Chinook Parkway while learning from an expert team leader about its many leisure opportunities and environmental impacts.

Bring the entire family on the following dates.

If you are unable to attend the walk Nat packs will be available for borrowing at the local library so that you can explore the creek and parkway at your own time.

This project is Proudly supported by Swift Current Rec. & Parks Dept., ASUPCA, Swift Current Museum, Swift Current Library, Swift Current Creek Watershed Stewarts and the South West Naturalists.

August 15th – Have a Little Fun – The Rec. & Parks will guide you on a walk and talk about all of the exciting opportunities for low cost recreational opportunities.

August 22nd – Water Fun – The Swift Current Creek Watershed Stewarts will talk about some of the amazing water creatures that you can spot on your adventure.

August 29th – History Fun– join the Swift Current Museum as they guide you on a journey to rediscover the history of creek events such as drought, floods, accidents, and special activities along the creek.

September 12th – South West Naturalists
