Leanne Tuntland-Wiebe was raised on a farm in the Stewart Valley area and moved to Swift Current in 1980. Leanne spent 13 years early in her career working for the local media and managing a ladieswear store. Leanne and her husband, Randy, co-own and manage Bumper to Bumper. They have two married children.

Leanne is actively involved in the community and has demonstrated her passion through the many roles she has successfully undertaken. Leanne served on the Wheatland Mall Board of Directors, the Christian Education Board at East Side Church of God, and co-chaired the Gull Lake Special Care Centre Council. Currently, she serves on the Swift Current and District Chamber of Commerce and the board of the Dr. Noble Irwin Foundation.

Leanne demonstrates and advocates for transparency, accountability, and ethical decision making. She enjoys dedicating her time, experience, and resources towards identifying and meeting specific needs of the community.
