

John Wall

(306) 741-8884

Married to Alice, proud parents of two sons, six grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Served on the boards of Victims Services and Crisis Line, director on Riverview Village Estates, founding member in the establishment of the women's safe shelter, as well as Mennonite Heritage Village, six years on the Swift Current School Board, represented the City Planning Committee for the new Hospital. I operated a successful business in Swift Current for 30 years and currently a board member of My Mutual Insurance.

A specific area of focus is to bring the issue of affordable housing to the forefront. "I would like to offer my experience as director for Prairie Pioneer Independent Housing, other local housing initiatives, as well as emphasis on coordinating provincial and federal housing funding".

I am respectfully asking for your support in this election and I look forward to hearing from you on your concerns and priorities for our city.
